Market Review

- In March, we witnessed sustained tightening across the fiscal and monetary arms of government. The Federal Government accessed c.N475 billion worth of debt via the bond auction, while the CBN issued Treasury Bills to the tune of c.N1.3 trillion at the two (2) Primary Market Auctions (PMA) conducted in the month. In addition, the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) opted to hike rates by another 200bps, bring total hikes done in the last one (1) month to 600bps.
- To end the period, benchmark 91-day, 182-day and 1-year bills closed at yields of 15.79%, 17.68% and 21.80%, respectively. The 1-year OMO Bill also ended the quarter at a yield of 25.39%.
- We recorded an increase in the country’s headline inflation which surged by 1.80% to 31.70% in February from 29.90% in January following an uptick in food inflation (37.90% vs. 35.41% in January) and core inflation (25.13% vs. 23.59% in January).

Disclaimer:

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of the funds carefully before investing. This and other information are contained in the fund's prospectus and other documents, if available, which may be obtained by contacting our representative. Please read them carefully before you invest or send money.

Performance reflects changes in unit prices, reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distributions. All periods longer than one year are annualized. A new or smaller Fund's performance may not represent how the Fund is expected to or may perform in the long-term. New Funds have limited operating histories for investors to evaluate and new and smaller Funds may not attract sufficient assets to achieve investment and trading efficiencies. A Fund may be forced to sell a comparatively large portion of its portfolio to meet significant unitholders redemptions for cash, or hold a comparatively large portion of its portfolio in cash due to significant units purchases for cash, in each case when the Fund otherwise would not seek to do so, which may adversely affect performance.

A word about risk: Investing in foreign denominated and/or domiciled securities may involve heightened risk due to currency fluctuations, and economic and political risks, which may be enhanced in emerging markets. The value of most bond funds and fixed income securities are impacted by changes in interest rates. Bonds and bond funds with longer durations tend to be more sensitive and more volatile than securities with shorter durations; bond prices generally fall as interest rates rise. Past rankings are no guarantee of future rankings.
